

BLACK COCKATOOS IN THE MARGARET RIVER REGION

Photos by Keith Lightbody

Nature Conservation, the Shire of Augusta Margaret River and Birdlife WA are holding a follow-up event to the 2018 Great Cocky Count.

Rebecca Boyland from Birdlife WA will present on available findings from the Great Cocky Count and Shapelle McNee will talk about the next steps for Black Cockatoo research in this region.

When: Thursday 21st June

Time: 5.30 to 7.00 pm

Where: Augusta Margaret River Council Chambers, Walcliffe Road, Margaret River

To register your interest to attend please contact Nature Conservation on 9757 2202 or info@natureconservation.org.au.

This presentation is supported by the Shire of Augusta Margaret River

Hear the results
so far from this year's Great Cocky Count

Stay involved: learn about a new citizen
science project on black cockatoos in the SW

